

1012 - 2012

Celebrating 1,000 years

Celebratory events to mark 1,000 years of Christian Worship in Cruden Parish in North East Scotland.

The Churches of Cruden invite you to join them for a celebration of 1,000 years of Christianity in the Parish of Cruden

It was in 1012 that there took place around the sand dunes of Cruden Bay the Battle of Crochdane between the Scots and the Danes. After the battle, out of sorrow for the many left dead on the battlefield, there was established a chapel dedicated to St Olaf.

So in 1012, Christian worship started in Cruden and has continued to the present day. The Churches of Cruden want to celebrate this millennial anniversary by holding three events described on the next 3 pages.

ST OLAF'S WELL

This will take place on St Olaf's day near the site (precise location no longer known) of the first Christian chapel in Cruden parish, built on the dunes where the Battle took place.

By the 17th hole on Cruden Bay golf course, there still exists today St Olaf's Well and, by permission of the Golf Club, we will worship beside it.

The Bishop of Aberdeen and Orkney will celebrate the Eucharist and all are invited to come along. Cars can be parked in the golf course car park or driven down to the green keeping huts next to St Olaf's Well.

After the service tea and coffee will be freely provided by the Churches in the Clubhouse (and bacon rolls may be bought).

We gratefully acknowledge the courtesy and cooperation of Cruden Bay Golf Club Council without whose help the service on 29 July could not take place. The Council has agreed that in the event of wet weather the service can take place in the clubhouse overlooking the site of the battle.
